Chapter 9. Appropriation to County Corn Growers Association or Horticultural Society if There Is No County Fair

IC 15-1-9-1Appropriation for premiums

Sec. 1. In counties where no agricultural fair or association exists, or is not in active operation, the county councils and the board of county commissioners are hereby authorized to annually appropriate and pay to any county corn growers' association or horticultural society a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) which sum shall be used in the payment of premiums. Any such county corn growers' association or horticultural society to be eligible to receive such sum shall have at least fifty (50) members in the local association or society and at least ten (10) members in the state association or society.
